

I do not think that large monopolies whose main objective is to make more money can adequately give balanced coverage of news to the public. I am opposed to the FCC's lifting the cross-ownership ban.